

Terra Alta Presbyterian Church Scholarship

ABOUT THE FUND

With the decrease of the Terra Alta Presbyterian Church's congregation, the church parishioners made the difficult decision to close their church. It was the desire of the parishioners to give their remaining assets back to the community and keep with the spirit of their church. The Terra Alta Presbyterian Church decided to use their remaining assets to establish two funds with YCF, one of which being the Terra Alta Presbyterian Church Scholarship.

Through this scholarship, the church will carry on its important philanthropic efforts and provide a lasting legacy of their passion to give back to the Preston County community.
