

Seth Burton Memorial Scholarship

ABOUT THE FUND

The Seth Burton Memorial Scholarship was established by J. Phillip and Rebecca Burton of Fairmont in memory of their son, Seth. Seth, a former Marion County student, tragically lost his life in a traffic accident at a cross-country meet in 1998. The scholarship stands as a tribute to Seth's memory, reflecting the Burton family's commitment to honoring his legacy through educational opportunities for deserving individuals.

This scholarship was one of three original funds incorporated into the Community Foundation of North Central West Virginia (CFNCWV) when it was chartered in 2006. CFNCWV has since merged with Your Community Foundation of North Central West Virginia, Inc. (YCF).
