

Rita Doppelt Tanner Community Fund

ABOUT THE FUND

The Rita Doppelt Tanner Community Fund was established by her son, Seth Tanner, to continue her legacy of support of the Morgantown community, which she embraced as her own from her arrival in 1951 from Chicago to her death in 2024.

Rita's active involvement included organizations promoting health, social welfare, education, and women's rights. She was also active in the business community. She served on the board of Your Community Foundation as well as many other local organizations. In 2024, Rita was honored with The Earl L. Core Award, the Morgantown Area Partnership's highest honor, for her lifetime of community service. Her husband, Stephen, was honored with this award as well.

The Rita Doppelt Tanner Community Fund, a donor-advised fund, will support projects in health and human services, animal welfare, and sports and recreation.
